

Home School Programs Accepted by Georgia State University

If you have (or will have) received a College Preparatory high school diploma from one of the programs below, please apply to Georgia State using the application guidelines for high school students.

If you have used any other program of study in your home-school studies, please apply using the application guidelines for home-schooled students.

If you completed some coursework from one of the programs listed below, but did not (or will not) receive a high school transcript from the program, please apply using the guidelines for home-schooled students, and have the program submit an official transcript to Georgia State.
